JIM KACHIDURIAN NAMED CHIEF COMMERCIAL OFFICER OF SEACUBE CONTAINER LEASING LTD.

WOODCLIFF LAKE, NEW JERSEY (November 29, 2017) - Jim Kachidurian has been named Chief Commercial Officer of SeaCube Container Leasing Ltd., one of the largest global container leasing companies. He will report to Robert Sappio, Chief Executive Officer, who made the announcement.

"In this new position, Jim will be responsible for our customer-facing functions that will dictate the success of SeaCube in strengthening SeaCube's role as a premium supplier of containers and other intermodal assets," said Mr. Sappio. He added that Mr. Kachidurian will also be responsible for promoting the development and implementation of evolving business strategies to drive profitable growth and will be leading global sales and marketing and the trading team.

Mr. Kachidurian is an experienced executive with a record of success delivering strong financial results and increasing profitability across a variety of financial services and transportation companies. He began his career in container leasing at Transocean Leasing some 30 years ago.

He has held senior sales and marketing roles with companies such as GE Capital, Donlen Corporation and most recently as Senior Vice President - Sales and Marketing at Stoughton Trailers in Madison, Wisconsin. "Jim's commercial expertise will provide significant value to SeaCube moving forward," added Mr. Sappio.

Mr. Kachidurian is a graduate of the University of Colorado at Boulder and has taken many executive training and management courses over his career.

About SeaCube Container Leasing Ltd.

SeaCube Container Leasing and its associated companies acquire, own, manage and lease containers, essential intermodal equipment used in global containerized cargo trade. SeaCube Containers owns and manages both dry and refrigerated shipping containers including generator sets used to power the refrigerated containers when transported over land for prolonged periods of time while en-route to their final destination. The company has long-term relationships with an extensive group of customers in the intermodal shipping industry and operates worldwide to provide high quality equipment and excellent service with global coverage.
